DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 87-88 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

It has been held that the functional “whereby ...” statement does not define any structure and accordingly can not serve to distinguish. In re Mason, 114 USPQ 127, 44 CCPA 937 (1957).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 71-75, 77-88, 102-107, 109-112, 114-123 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by McQuade et al (US 5,416,429).

Re claims 71, 74 and 85-86: McQuade discloses a first substrate (20) and a second substrate (20) and their shapes are adjusted by 38s. McQuade discloses the first region is along a central longitudinal direction of 20 and a second region is close to 38s.

See Figs. 1-9.

Re claims 72-73, 75, 77-84, 110: 38s are independently and selectively adjusted for providing a plurality of push or pull forces or only providing push or pull forces (Fig. 9).

Re claims 87-88: see col. 1, line 14 and Figs. 1-11.

Re claims 102-107: see Figs. 1-11. 38s are applying numerous regions of the first and second substrates.

Re claims 109, 114: 14 is a reference structure and see Figs. 1-9.

Re claims 111-112: Fig. 3 is a first planar relationship and Fig. 9 is a second planar relationship.

Re claims 115-121: see Fig. 9.

Re claim 122-123: 45 is a monolithic continuous surface.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 108 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over McQuade et al (US 5,416,429).

McQuade discloses in col. 9, lines 54-59 that the substrates can assume various orientations, except for a curvature.

At the time the invention was made, it would have been an obvious matter of design choice to a person of ordinary skill in the art to change the cantilevered portion having a curved shape to accommodate devices having curved surfaces during testing.

Therefore, it would have been an obvious matter of design choice to modify McQuade to obtain the invention as specified in claim 108.

“When there is design need or market pressure to solve a problem and there are a finite number of identified, predictable solutions, a person of ordinary skill as a good reason to pursue the known options within his or her technical grasp. If this leads to the anticipated success, it is likely the product is not of innovation but of ordinary skill and common sense. In that instance the fact that a combination was obvious to try might show it was obvious under 35 U.S.C. 103.” KSR Int'l Co. v. Teleflex Inc., 127 S. Ct. 1727, 1742, 82 USPQ2d 1385, 1396 (2007). Since McQuade discloses in col. 9, lines 54-59 that the substrates can assume various orientations, it would have been obvious to change the cantilevered portion having a curved shape to accommodate devices having curved surfaces during testing.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Interviews After Final

8. Applicant note that an interview after a final rejection must be submitted briefly in writing the intended purpose and content of the interview (the agenda of the interview must be in writing). Upon review of the agenda, the Examiner may grant the interview if the examiner is convinced that disposal or clarification for appeal may be accomplished with only nominal further consideration. Interviews merely to restate arguments of record or to discuss new limitations will be denied. See MPEP 714.13 and 713.09.

Conclusion

9. Please provide reference numerals (either in parentheses next to the claimed limitation or in a table format with one column listing the claimed limitation and another column listing corresponding reference numerals in the remark section of the response to the Office Action) to all the claimed limitations as well as support in the disclosure for better clarity (optional).

Applicants are duly reminded that a full and proper response to this Office Action that includes any amendment to the claims and specification of the application as originally filed requires that the applicant point out the support for any amendment made to the disclosure, including the claims. See 37 CFR 1.111 and MPEP 2163.06.

10. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
